THE ONE STOCK THAT COULD MAKE YOU RICH

- This is not just a one-product company. In fact, it recently introduced a new product that could change the way people communicate.
- After its recent pull back, if you subtract the cash this company holds, it trades at a ridiculous 6.5 times forward earnings!
- This company is making roughly 25 times more money than Microsoft was making during its heyday!
- How profitable is this company? In the thirty seconds it took you to read these bullet points, the company added another $40,000 to its cash pile; which is currently more than the value of all of the gold held at Fort Knox!
